Report prepared by- Ms. Bidisha Sarmah (Co-ordinator, Women Cell)

On 27th April, 2023, Women Cell, a unit of Jhanji Hemnath Sarma College Teacher's Unit, in association with NSS Unit, Jhanji Hemnath Sarma College organised a Health Awareness Programme in the institution's adopted Village. For the same, Dr Pragya Annakha Gogoi was invited as a resource person to speak on the topic "Health and Hygiene for Women". The event also included distribution of sanitary napkins to women of the village which were sourced from a non- governmental organisation- Pathik.

The event started with a speech by Ms. Bidisha Sarmah, Co-ordinator, Women Cell welcoming Dr. Manjit Gogoi, Principal, Jhanji Hemnath Sarma College, Dr Pragya Annakha Gogoi, Resource Person, other faculty members of the institution as well as the women of the adopted village. Ms. Bidisha Sarmah then stated the objective of organising such an event and requested the principal of the institution to say a few lines on the event. Dr. Manjit Gogoi humbly obliged and spoke on the need of giving importance to women health and hygiene. Thereafter, the resource person, Dr. Pragya Annakha Gogoi shared valuable information on women health and hygiene necessary for improving their living standard.

After the informative speech of our resource person, the event was continued by Dr. Santana Dutta, Asst. Professor, Dept of Sociology and it proceeded towards distribution of sanitary napkins to the women. The resource person as well as other female faculty members distributed the sanitary napkins. Dr. Sanatana Dutta then delivered the vote of thanks, thus successfully putting an end to the event. In the event a total of 150 packets of sanitary napkins were distributed.
