

Seminar Report

GANDHIAN PHILOSOPHY AND WOMEN EMPOWERMENT

Organised by: Gandhi Study Centre & Women Cell

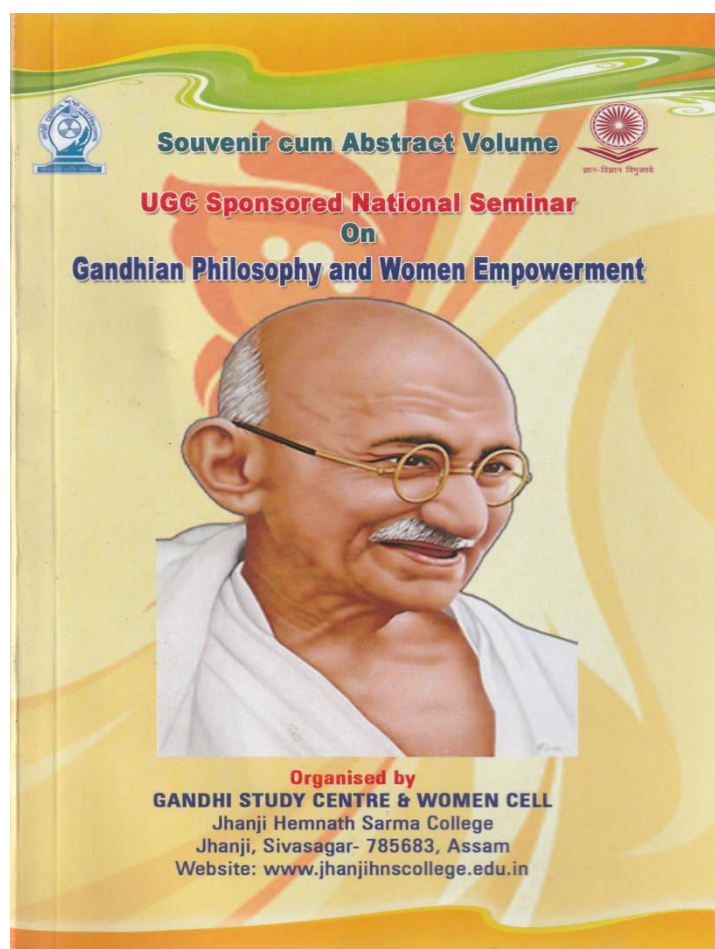

Sponsored by UGC

Date: 25th & 26th March, 2017

Coordinator: Mr. Bijoy Phukan, Department of Political Science, Jhanji H.N.S. College

Two days UGC sponsored national seminar was organised by The Gandhi Study Centre and Women Cell of Jhanji Hemnath Sarma College on the topic 'Gandhian Philosophy and women Empowerment'. The main objective of the seminar was to focus, analyse and search the relevance of Gandhian philosophy regarding women empowerment. The Seminar was conducted in five technical sessions. More than 80 participants' different places of Assam were present here and 43 participants presented their paper in the seminar. Dr. Ruprekha Bordoloi, Principal, Kakojan College, Jorhat, Bineeta Dutta, Rtd. Principal, PGTC, Jorhat, Dr. Adil-ul-Yasin (Rtd.) Associate professor, Department of Political science, Dibrugarh University, Barun Dey, Assistant Professor, Department of political Science, Dibrugarh University served as Resource persons in the seminar.

ABSTRACT VOLUME OF THE SEMINAR

Photographic Evidence

Respected Principal along with Guests in the Dias (Shot during Inaugural Session)

Dr. Ruprekha Bordoloi, Principal, Kakojan College (As Resource Person)

A Part of the Presenters while Presenting Papers

