Best Practice I: Title of the Practice- Wall Magazine

Goal: To develop students' creativity in writing, drawing etc. all the departments of the college publish wall magazine every year. Especially on the eve of Teachers' Day the students of each department of the college prepare wall magazine to express their thoughts in writing.

Context: Wall magazines are a medium within the educational institutions for the students to express their creativity. Therefore, the collage encourages students to make wall magazine where they can post their articles, poems, drawings and other compositions to share with each other.

The Practice: Wall magazine plays an important role in expressing students' emotion and publishing the talent in explicit manner. So, the college organizes wall magazine competition every year to enable the students to express their inner feelings and make them aware about socio-economic developments.

Evidence: Writing in wall magazine helps students to develop their literary taste and reading habits. It initiates writing tendency in student-teacher and attract their attention on current incidents.

Problems encountered: Nothing significant has been occurred while execution although students are smart enough to overcome all the barriers.

Best Practice II : Title of the Practice- Guardian Meeting

Goal: To make a bridge between teacher-students and parents the college conducted guardian meeting every year in its premises.

Context: This guardian meeting helps the college to share academic progress and growth of students based on classroom observations, assessment etc.

The Practice: The College conducted guardian meeting every year to discuss issues that may be interfering with students learning and growth.

Evidence: The guardians has become aware about the course curriculum and progress report of their children through the meeting.

Problems encountered: 80% Students of the College belong to BPL category and the guardian are engaged in daily wage jobs for which they are not in a position to visit college in a frequent manner although in special circumstances attend the college to consult with College Authorities.
